BEACHSIDE BOLTHOLE

At a price point that is becoming increasingly rare in Aireys Inlet, this cosy, low maintenance, three bedroom beachside bolthole is set on a bushy block of 670m² (approx.).

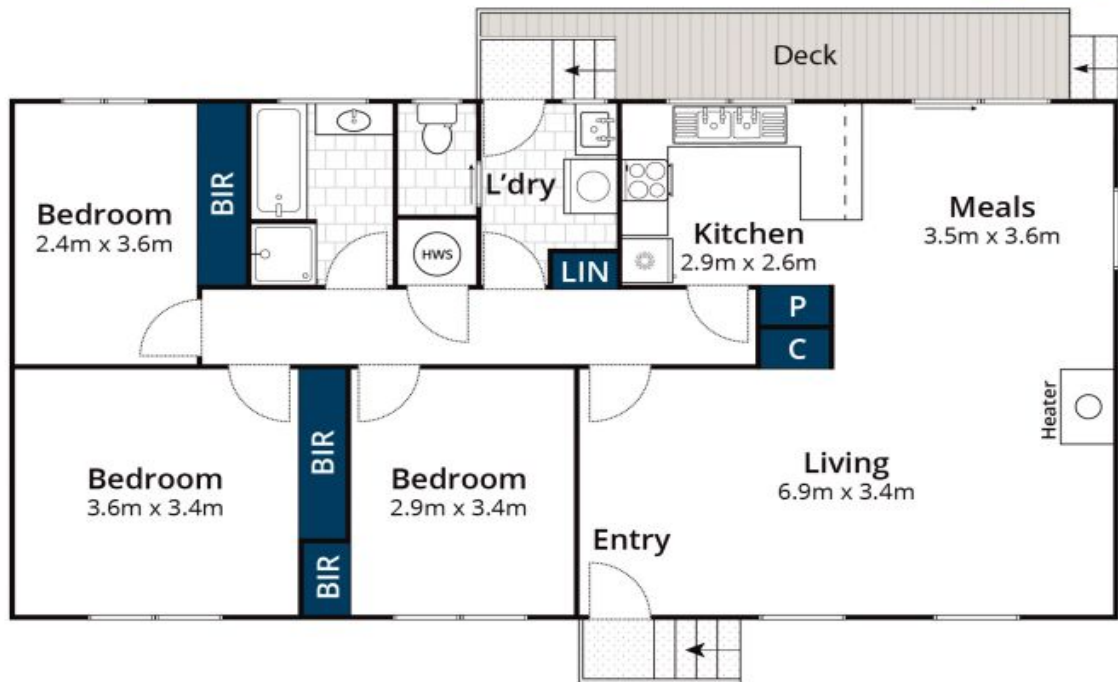

Ideally positioned at the end of a flat, quiet court location, providing the perfect setting for kids to play cricket in summer or kick the footy in winter, without having to move for passing traffic. Within easy walking distance of all of Aireys Inlets amenities.

The low maintenance hardiplank construction and native yard ensure that weekends will not be spent maintaining the property. All set on one level the house is ready to use as is, or for a small investment one could easily value add to enhance both its liveability and its capital worth.
